

Elroy Winston Wibstad was born on May 31, 1932, in Brandon, MN to Simon and Nora (Gilbertson) Wibstad. He attended school in Brandon and helped his father on the farm. Elroy served three years in the U.S. Army and served in the Korean War.

Elroy did mechanical work for Ray Strom. He and another partner owned and operated tow trucks. In the early 1970's, Elroy worked for Pro Ag delivering feed until he retired in 1995. After retirement, he helped drive tractor for his son-in-law, Kevin Eddy, until he was 79.

Elroy was a lifetime member of the Brandon American Legion and the Alexandria VFW. He enjoyed fishing in the winter, deer hunting up north, and taking care of his place. Most important was his family, whom he loved.

*He stilled the storm
to a whisper.
The waves of the sea
were hushed.
They were glad
when it grew calm,
and He guided them
to their
haven of rest.*
