

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparast a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Nancy Yvonne McClintock

Nancy Yvonne Fields was born on September 5, 1930, to Vera (Hurst) and James A. Fields in Amarillo, Texas. As a young girl she attended Amarillo Public School and graduated from high school in 1948. Upon graduating high school, she attended Amarillo Junior College. In August of 1950, she was united in marriage to the love of her life, James Edwin "Jim" McClintock and they spent 69 years travelling, gardening, and enjoying life together before his passing in 2020. She was a member of the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Altus, a member of Republican Women, and the past president of the AARP club. She loved music and loved to play the piano for the congregation at her church as well as singing in the church choir. She was a secretary for two Baptist Churches, but she later found her calling as a lab technician at a water treatment plant in Amarillo. She loved her work as a lab technician, but her ultimate love was spending time with her children and later in years with her grandchildren.

Nancy was preceded in death by her husband, Jim; and parents, James A. and Vera Fields. She is survived by two sons, Dr. Carey McClintock and wife, Debbie and Rev. Dan McClintock and wife, Janice; daughter, Betty Kay Howell and husband, Tracy; six grandchildren, Josh McClintock and wife, Sara, Brent McClintock and wife, Crystal, Kelly Howell and wife, Skyla, Mandy Booker and husband, Michael, Lindsey McClintock and husband, Sebastian, and Jessica Rivera and husband, Gio; fourteen great grandchildren, Kaylie, Jillian, McKayla, Stephen, Lucas, Charlotte, Carson, Bennett, Liela, Zaiden, Aaliyah, Adilynn, Ryker, and Harlie.
