A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says,

"Grieve not for me.

Remember the best times,

the laughter, the song,

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes we're together again.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Her STORY

Deloris Marshall was born May 28, 1955 to Henry and Julia Marshall in Bishopville, SC. She received her wings and went home to be with the Lord on November 20, 2024.

Deloris received her education at Girls High School in Philadelphia, PA. After high school she worked as a Dietitian.

Deloris was the proud mother of 3 children, Shjuan, Nicole, and Jason. She was a wonderful mother to her children, and was supportive even more as they became adults. She gave them pure love.

Deloris was a sweet, loving, and independent woman, who loved the simple things in life. She loved sitting in nature with her slurpy. She loved taking long walks. She also enjoyed drinking coffee and watching TV.

Deloris loved her family, especially her brother, Willie Marshall who was overprotective of her because it was just the two of them.

Deloris was a strong, nurturing woman who will be missed by her family and all those who knew her.

Deloris was preceded in death by her parents, Henry and Julia Marshall, and her daughter, Shjuan.

Deloris leaves to cherish precious memories her children, Nicole Marshall and Jason Marshall; her brother, Willie Marshall; 8 grandchildren; 1 niece and 4 nephews; and a host of other family members and friends.

Broken Chain

*We knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly. In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories your love is still our guide;
and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.*

Lovingly Submitted,

The FAMILY
