Major Characters:

No	Character Name	Character sketch	Preferred Hollywood/Bollywood actor
1	Levan Lamarr	The Intersection Man. Ex-marine. Early thirties. Skilled in combat. Devoted husband to Mira (who is half-Indian). Impetuous. Flawed when it comes to relationship to his friends.	Chris Evans/ Chris Pratt
2	Jonah Salter/ Lucius Salter/ Fabian Berkovits	Jonah is the scientist who creates the Entangler, which heals Levan of his cancer. He is the main character who is present till the very end of the book. Fabian Berkovits is an identity Jonah acquires after he resets himself (becomes young in his twenties) in the entangler. Jonah and Lucius are in their mid-forties, while Fabian is in twenties. Jonah (Lucius/Fabian) is a dedicated scientist who has no time for anything else other than his passion. He is one of the richest men in the world, thanks to his father's pharmaceutical empire.	Tom Hanks as Jonah/Lucius and Tom Holland as Fabian Or Jesse Eisenberg as all three with appropriate Old makeup (for Jonah/Lucius).
3	Mira Lamarr	Mira is Levan's wife. She is half-Indian but born and brought up in the US.	Priyanka Chopra/ Deepika Padukone
4	Rohit Shah	Indian billionaire (pharmaceutical tycoon) and owner of Amrit Medix. His pharma company was a stiff competitor to Jonah Salter's corporation. But later they become partners. He diversifies (for the sake of his sons) into the Indian space industry. A tall stately man in his late sixties.	Amitabh Bachchan and Bachchan alone.
5	Aman Shah	Rohit Shah's genius son. Twenties in the beginning (Book 1 & 2); and forties in Book 3. Aman Shah is the youngest of Rohit's three sons.	Someone young who resembles Bachchan (not necessary, but good to have). Ranveer Singh is also a good candidate
