A Fallen Limb

A Limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says, grieve not for me.

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remember all, how I truly was blessed.

Her Story

Rosemary Pinckney-Moore, age 61, unexpectedly passed away on Monday, March 4, 2024, surrounded by her family at Nazareth Hospital in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Rosemary was born on May 4, 1961 to her late mother, Louise Martin-Pinckney-Solomon, her late father, Henry Pinckney, Sr., and her late step-father, Peter J. Solomon at Thomas Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

She attended Ferguson Elementary School from 1965 -1970, and attended John Wanamaker Middle School from 1970 - 1974; and graduated from William Penn High School in 1978. After high school and prior to getting married, Rose briefly attended the Philadelphia Art Institute, where she enjoyed painting and drawing. Her work was admired by many, and in the 90's Mellon Bank showcased her work in one of Mellon's Bank's Center City locations. Rose was a creative soul and described as a 70's Flower Child by her friends and family. She was also known as "Rose Buds", and Roma by her loved ones. Rose also lived in Europe for sometime with her family.

Her first love was her family, and especially her sons, Tyrie and Dramel as well as her two grandsons, Sabastian and little Tyrie. She also tremendously loved her nephew Zenuf and her niece Kennedy, who she and her husband Fred also helped raise. Rosemary loved the Lord with all her heart and soul; and was a kind, generous, and caring person --she really lived it.

Rosemary was a beautiful soul, and will be sorely missed. She leaves to mourn her husband of 44 years, Fredrick Moore, Jr. and her two sons, Frederick Moore, and Dramel O'Brien Moore, and her two grandsons, Frederick and Sabastian. She also leaves to mourn her siblings, brothers, Henry Pinckney, Jr., Steven Pinckney, Keanneth Pinckney and the late Jackie LeRoy Pinckney; and sisters, Joyce Little-Pinckney, Sheila Pinckney, and Karen Pinckney; and 12 nieces and nephews, Sharicka Pinckney, Marquis Reynolds, Chanel Reynolds, Sharee Pinckney, Stephanie Pinckney, Kalena Pinckney, Kanasha Pinckney, Zenuf Mason Pinckney, Taylor Pinckney, and Kennedy and Kendra Pinckney. She also leaves to mourn two living aunts, Barbara Johnson, who resides in New York City, and Vera Martin of Moorehead City, South Carolina, and a host of cousins and friends.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
