Daddy, I miss you. I wish this was all a dream and you were still here with me. You are my best friend. I miss our play fights and your tough love roughing me up.

*Love Always, Your Son,

Ten years on earth with you wasn't long enough, but I will always love you. I love the way you loved me unconditionally. I have plenty of memories to look back on, and I will always remember you, your smile, your smirk, and that gap, lol. You have blessed me with two beautiful babies and a spitting image of you. I am forever grateful to have shared a love with you in this lifetime. You will never be forgotten. I promise to continue to love on our babies x2. Until we meet again, may you rest in peace.

OBITUARY

RASHAD WILLIAM BAILEY, affectionately called “Shoddy,” was born to Rene and William Bailey in Philadelphia, PA, on May 21, 1993. From this union, he was the second of two children, having a sister, Ariane Bailey. On Monday, July 3, 2023, Rashad departed this life to go home to be with the Lord.

Rashad received his formal education in the Philadelphia public school system, graduating from Frankford High School. He was employed by Empire and Delta Home Care. Rashad accepted Jesus Christ at a young age and attended West Park Church of Deliverance where he sang in the youth choir.

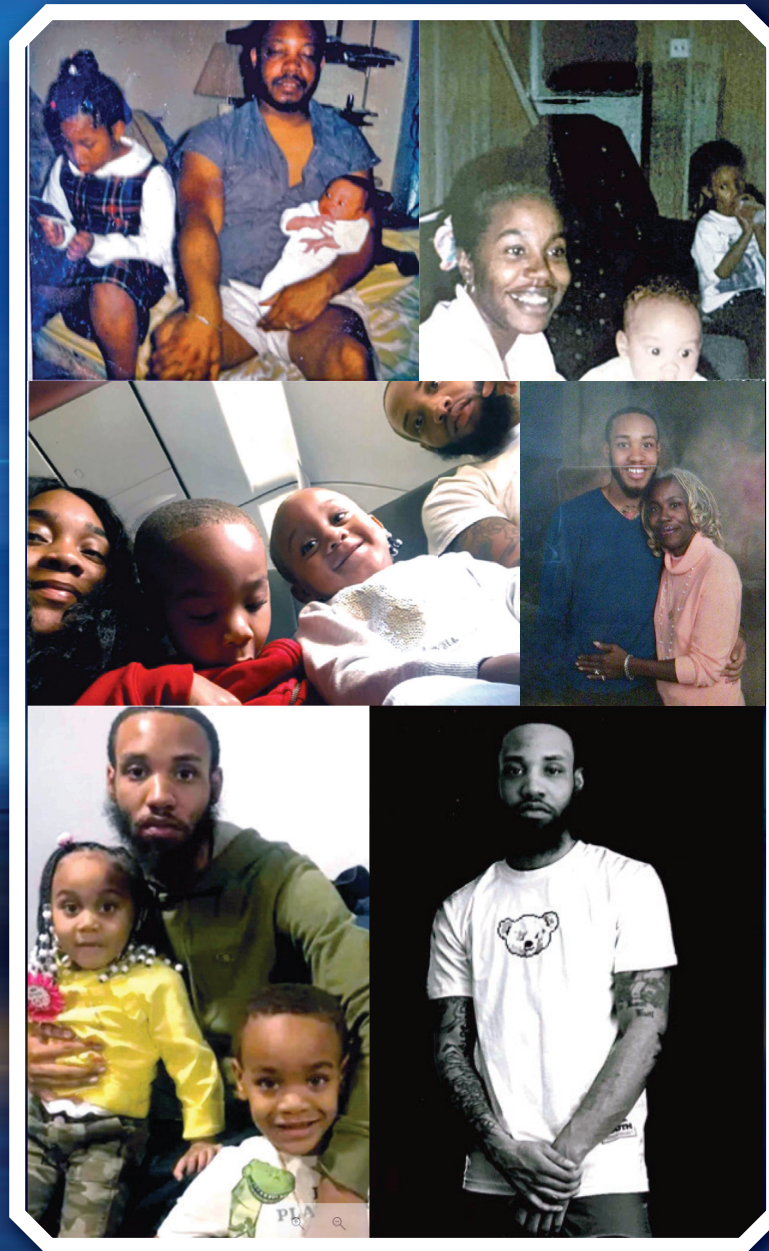

Rashad was easygoing, pleasant, and family-oriented. His favorite pastimes were listening to music, sports, video games, and spending time with family and friends. He was a loving father who took great pleasure in spending time with his son, “RJ,” daughter, Rayna, significant other, Brittany, and his cousins who were close to him like siblings.

Rashad was preceded in death by his grandmother, Pernell Bailey, and grandfather, William “Bill” Bailey.

Rashad leaves to forever cherish his memories: his mother, Rene Bailey; father, William Bailey; stepmother, Ethalia Bailey; sister, Ariane Bailey; two nieces, Asja Bailey-Anderson and Jayla Bailey-Colclough; one son, Rashad Bailey; one daughter, Rayna Bailey; significant other, Brittney Hines; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
