

Remembering the Life....

Julie Renee (Evavold) Satterlie was born on December 10th, 1962 to Rick & Judy (Runnigen) Evavold in Alexandria, MN. She was baptized and confirmed at Trinity Lutheran in Ashby, MN. She graduated from Ashby Public School in 1980. She attended Alexandria Technical College for Fashion Merchandising. She fell in love and was married to Randy Satterlie on October 30th, 1981.

She and her husband bought the Satterlie Farm, where they raised a family and cared for the land. They, along with Eric & DeAnn Satterlie, began Satterlie Custom Harvesting in 1986. The family business took them from Oklahoma to the Canadian border following the wheat harvest. Julie was a secretary at many local schools and a business in Elbow Lake. She was a member of Faith Lutheran Church and served on the Evansville School Board for 6 years. Julie purchased Common Threads Quilt Shop of Alexandria and moved the quilt shop to Garfield, MN.

In the Fall of 2014, Julie was diagnosed with an autoimmune disorder that attacked her lungs. By the gift of organ donation, she received a double lung transplant on March 1st, 2018 at M Health Fairview University of Minnesota Medical Center. She called this her "New Birthday". She was blessed with 6 and a half miracle years.

Julie's steadfast, Christian faith, and commitment to true tradition reflected her deep, rooted values, shaping the way she lived her life. Julie had a beautiful spirit and appreciated the true essence of living. She had a heart full of love and joy and always aimed to make her families day a little brighter. She always had a smile on her face and a sparkle in her eye. Julie's planning and organizational skills made her an exceptional coordinator when anyone needed help. She had a talent bringing structure and order to activities. She was involved even when her disease restricted her to being homebound. She still wanted to help, saying "Let me do the phone calls; that's something I can do; tell me what I can do to help from here in the house."

Julie enjoyed quilting, scrapbooking, traveling with her husband, reading, cooking, baking and especially spending time with her grandkids. She had a glorious singing voice and her laughter was recognizable anywhere. She fed the masses from the back of her Suburban, she made a significant impact on her community, she was the best wife and mother and she worked hard.

Julie passed peacefully surrounded by her family on August 4th, 2024. She is survived by her husband, Randy Satterlie, daughters Katie (Grant) Satterlie-Trisko, Danielle (Aaron) Wurm, Holly (Trent) Thoennes, grand-children Parker, Aikley & Cooper Thoennes and Sibley & Declan Wurm, mother, Judy Evavold, and sister, Kristi Evavold.

She is preceded in death by her father, Rick Evavold, and grandsons, Payton & Leighton Thoennes.

*I have fought the good fight,
I have finished the race,
I have kept the faith.
Finally, there is laid up for me
the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.
2 Timothy 4:7-8*

Down to the River to Pray by Alison Krauss

FAMILY SINGS:

As I went down to the river to pray
Studying about that good old way
And who shall wear the starry crown
Good Lord show me the way

Oh sisters let's go down
Let's go down come on down
Oh sisters let's go down
Down to the river to pray

As I went down in the river to pray
Studying about that good old way
And who shall wear the robe and crown
Good Lord show me the way

CONGREGATION JOINS:
Oh mothers let's go down
Let's go down come on down
Oh mothers let's go down
Down to the river to pray

As I went down to the river to pray
Studying about that good old way
And who shall wear the starry crown
Good Lord show me the way

Oh sinners let's go down
Let's go down come on down
Oh sinners let's go down
Down to the river to pray

As I went down to the river to pray
Studying about that good old way
And who shall wear the robe and crown
Good Lord show me the way
