

Lloyd Edwin Baxter was born in Livingston, MT on October 28, 1954, son of Lee and Wilma (Bull) Baxter. He was raised from age one in the home of Louise Sasse Baxter Lee, his grandmother, and Minnie Sasse Brown, his aunt. He lived in this same Livingston home his entire life, surrounded by the mountains he loved. He attended Park High School, graduating in 1973. Lloyd went to trade school where he developed his carpentry and other skills that served him for the rest of his life. In 1983, Lloyd married Debbie Wells and the two were blessed with a son, Ryan. Lloyd worked as a carpenter around the Livingston area and, for a few years, he drove logging trucks from the mountains. In recent years he enjoyed driving, throughout the northwest U.S., auto-delivery trucks for a dealership in Bozeman. The mountains were a perfect haven for Lloyd. He loved spending time outdoors biking, floating, rafting, hunting, and fishing. He was even known to fish while on horseback and to light matches by shooting a 22 rifle. His summers, as a boy, were spent on the family ranch high in the Crazy Mountains northeast of Livingston. For years, he enjoyed owning and maintaining a Crazy Mountain section of forest land near the ranch. He enjoyed music and was a self-taught piano player. He always had "tunes" playing, especially Pink Floyd. He loved traveling with Ryan to Hawaii and Mexico. Lloyd is survived by his son, Ryan (Erin) Baxter; granddaughter Charlotte Baxter; mother Wilma; siblings Carolyn Scharf, Gay and Guy. He is preceded in death by his father, Lee; his grandmother Louise; and his Aunt Minnie.

In Loving Memory Of
Lloyd Baxter
October 28, 1954 - January 18, 2022

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I've now found peace at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I've savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now - He set me free.
