Key Concept for Spiritual Growth

Paul was a man of great faith, assurance, and courage—all because of his unreserved commitment to Jesus, whom Paul encountered on the road to Damascus. That single incident had a lifelong impact on Paul. It made Paul the courageous and Spirit-filled messenger he was. So, Paul could write with confidence to the church at Corinth about the Source of his strength in the midst of conflict: “Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord?” (1 Cor. 9:1) Today’s lesson shows us that our Christian confidence and courage come only from our obedience to the calling to be Jesus’ disciples.

THERE IS A REASON THE WINDSHIELD IS BIGGER THAN THE REARVIEW MIRROR. YOUR FUTURE MATTERS MORE THAN YOUR PAST.

My salvation has nothing to do with my work and everything to do with the finished work of Christ on the cross.

God uses all things to bring about his purpose. He will not be deterred in his plan to sustain and carry creation to its intended glory.

You might question the purpose behind this thread or that. But be assured, God has a pattern. He has a plan. He is not finished, but when he is, the lace will be beautiful.

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

I WILL TRUST YOU
