

Jacob Wayne Helms was born on December 23, 2001 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. From the time he was born until leaving this world on June 25, 2024, he loved motorcycles. Jacob was on 2 wheels as often as he could be, only laying down 3 bikes- at least that's what he told his mother. He always said "When it's my time to go, I would be okay if it were on a motorcycle".

Despite his loud claims of hating people and social anxiety, Jacob was always willing to help others, often at cost to himself. This tradition carried even in his death, with his heart being donated. But, it's not just the big gives- he was always the first to offer a hand with anything from carrying in the groceries, helping with his younger siblings, or rebuilding bike motors. Though he had not lived in Minnesota for long, only a couple of years, he was quickly becoming a fixture at all of the local motorcycle rides and events to support others. Everyone that knew Jacob was well aware of his (twisted) sense of humor. However, if he felt he had stepped over the line, he would quickly apologize.

Jacob is survived and loved by many, including his parents, Buffie (Joey) Arntson and Erik (Jennifer) Helms; sisters, Krista (Wayne) Nolan, Carolena Helms; brothers, Anthony Helms, Jaxson Helms; nephew, Maverick Nolan; his beloved girlfriend, Abbey Hawkins; many grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, family members, and friends too numerous to list.

He is preceded in death by paternal grandmother, Carol Covert; and an uncle, Ryan Helms.
