

Pallbearers

Larry Bryant

Admad Scott

Harry Scott

Johnathon Barnes

Lee Hampton

Ronnie Bell

Honorary Pallbearers

Tommie Lee Duncan

Jeremiah Nelson

Flower Attendants

Nieces

Acknowledgment

The family of the late Missionary Arie Bell West acknowledge with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them with deep appreciation during their time of bereavement. Special thanks to Pruitt-Health (Mrs. Pringle). Personalized Care of Savannah, Georgia, Hospice of Savannah, the care givers that have become apart our family: Cynthia Givens, Sandra Roberts, Jaynah Elmore, Wendy Woods, Lakeisha Steal and cousin Carol Walls, and Jesus First The Community Church.

PRINTED BY:

BRIDGES ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES, LLC

1-833-848-5550

HOMEGOING

Celebration

FOR

Missionary

ARIE BELL WEST

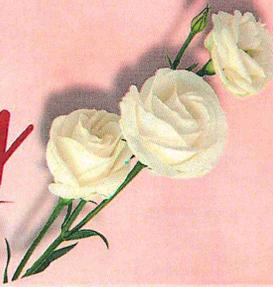

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2024 | 11:00AM

ADAMS FUNERAL HOME

510 STEPHENSON AVENUE
SAVANNAH, GEORGIA 31405

ELDER MELVIN LEWIS. EULOGY

Obituary

Missionary Arie Bell West was born on February 20, 1934 in Bellinger Hill, South Carolina to the late Mary Fireall and Joshua Tyson.

She was educated in the public schools in Bellinger Hill, South Carolina. She was united in marriage to Harold West. In 1958 the family moved to Savannah GA. She worked over 30 years for the Melaver family (the owner of M&M Super Market)

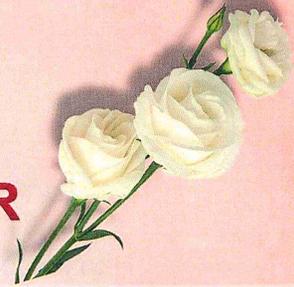

Missionary Arie Bell was affectionately call the "Lady in White" because white was the only color she would wear.

Missionary Arie Bell was a dedicated member of A Hebrew Israelite Assembly of Hinesville GA. She loved the Lord and serving in her church. She's known for bringing local singing groups to perform at her church. Missionary Arie Bell worked faithfully in her church until her health begins to decline. Even though she was suffering from dementia she always remembered to call on the Lord to help her. On February 2,2024, with her children by her side, at her residence under hospice care God quietly called her to Heaven.

Missionary Arie Bell was preceded in death by her husband, Harold West, her mother Mary Fireall, her father Joshua Tyson and her daughter, Lucille West Lyles.

She leaves to cherish her memories: two daughters, Mrs. Peggy West Varnadore (Geartha) and Ms. Beatrice West Samuel : one son whom she cherish Harold West Jr. (Franscean) five sisters: Joan Tyson Hall, Jacqueline Tyson Beasley, Joycelin Tyson Maynard, JenniseTyson Hoffman and Judith (John) Tyson Boatwright: two brothers, Joshua Tyson and Joseph (Verna) Tyson. Eight grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren. A host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

TO OUR MOTHER

Mother, we will miss you dearly. Life will be hard without you. We will miss your independent spirit and your defiant personality. You were a part of our life for so long. Even when dementia robbed you of your memory you still knew how to call on us whenever you needed something. Life will be different for us because coming over to your house will no longer be a part of our routine. At times it was challenging taking care of you, we ask God many times to give us strength and understanding. We pushed forward because we love you. We will ask God for strength whenever we passed the green house on 37th street. Take your rest dear mother until we see you again.

Peggy, Jr., and Bea

May God Be Your Comfort

By Paul Berchtold, April, 2011

I just don't know what I can say,
A word or two, or none at all,
Words hardly come for me to pray,
My heart now makes new tears to fall.

I simply ask, God comfort you,
He can do it, so much better,
Than fancy words, on paper new,
On biggest card, or longest letter.

God comfort you, in such great loss,
He understands and knows it too,
His own son dying on the cross,
Is how he saves both me and you.

God said each tear, he'll wipe away,
Where we'll find hope, when crying's done,
And showed his plan, he has for us,
Resurrection, just like his son.

Jesus gave hope, the night he said,
In this world, you will have sorrow,
All pain he'll turn to joy instead,
The blessings of tomorrow.

God knows each heart, each soul, each mind,
How full they are of pain and grief,
What we would say, words cannot find,
Yet by his grace, he grants relief.

God truly knows the very best,
Your heart's desire, it's every beat,
God stay with you, in him find rest,
Your every need, may he now meet. Amen.

Order of Service

Presiding.....Evangelist Minktoy Nikele Dantzer

Processional & Finally Viewing

Invocation.....Elder Walter Scott

Scriptures:

Old Testament.....Elder Water Scott

New Testament.....Elder Walter Scott

Solo .....Brittany Carter Biseni

Remarks: ( 3 minutes please)

As a granddaughter ..... Latisha West Barnes
As a sister ..... Joan Tyson Hall
As a Hospice Nurse..... Tina Youmans

Selection.....Siblings of Arie Bell West

Acknowledgement ..... Kathy West Lee

Eulogy .....Elder Melvin Lewis

Benediction

Recessional

Interment- Shad Cemetery
Bellingr Hill, SC
Repat in Jesus First The Community Church Social Hall
2202 US-80 W, Garden City, GA, 31408

PHOTO Splash

