Introduction:

The Australian Club Championships is a club team's events for men and women participating in Australian squash. This is an interclub event contested between teams of players from the same club. This event is played over a single period at the same venue. Participating clubs may enter as many teams as they like - players may only play in one team and division. This event is played from Friday to Sunday and all teams entered must be able to field a team on each day.

Teams will be put into divisions dependent on their combined grading and the total number of teams entered.
