

I'm Free

Anne Lindgren Davison

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call

I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day,

To laugh, to love, to work or play

Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it with remembered joy

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Ah yes, these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow

My life's been full, I've savored much,

Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch

If my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief

Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free.

Pat Mason

November 7, 1935 ~ July 15, 2024

So do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you;
I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Isaiah 41:10

Obituary

Patsy (Pat) Lynnette Overton Mason left this earth and went to her heavenly home on Monday, July 15th. Pat was born to Louis Edwin Overton and Ludie Jaynes Overton on November 7, 1935, in Waco, Texas. She attended Waco area schools graduating from Waco High School in May 1953. On June 6, 1953, she married the love of her life, Warren Mason. To this happy marriage were born two children, Stan and Lynn. She loved being involved in all their activities, both in school and extracurricular. Then the grandchildren, Tim and Makenzie, entered her life to her great pleasure, followed by the great grandchildren. She loved being at home and one of her greatest pleasures was to have family and friends sitting around her kitchen table or on her patio laughing and talking. Her family was the joy of her life, and she cherished each member. Her patio gave her many happy hours of entertainment and bird watching in the back yard. Growing flowers and having a pretty yard were her favorite pastimes, second only to time with family. She was a member of Cogdell Memorial United Methodist Church for 50 years. She was preceded in death by her husband Warren and daughter Lynn. She is survived by her son Stan, daughter-in-law Kathi, sister Claudell, grandchildren Tim Mason and his wife Debbie, Makenzie Williams and her husband Gavin, great grandchildren Callahan, Reverie, Josie, Layna and Ellie, and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
