

*Have I not commanded you?
Be strong and courageous.
Do not be frightened or dismayed,
for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.*

Joshua 1:9

*My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.
I give them eternal life, and they will never perish,
and no one will snatch them out of my hand.
My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all,
and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.*

On October 30, 2024, Judy Lindsay went to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She died of complications from heart valve replacement surgery. She was born in Denver, Colorado, to Sheldon and Valeria Jacobs. She married Michael Lindsay on May 31, 1978. Judy and Michael had three children who blessed them with eleven grandchildren. She received her B.S. in Education and M.S. in Counseling from the State University of New York – Plattsburgh.

Judy spent her life in service to others. She was an Air Force wife who followed her husband to Arizona, New York and North Dakota. She worked as a school counselor in Grades K-12. When they moved to Minnesota, she worked for a non-profit organization as a Family Advocate in a Middle School. She also was elected to her local school board, serving two terms. She volunteered for many organizations. Judy was passionately patriotic. She worked for many political campaigns and was proud to be a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She had a deep and abiding faith and was a leader in Bible Study Fellowship International and taught Children’s Church.

Judy was preceded in death by her parents, Sheldon and Valeria Jacobs. She is survived by her husband Michael; her sister Sandra Hoffman; her brother Joseph (Carol) Jacobs; her three children Bradley (Sarah) Lindsay, Christina (Daniel) Maus, and Adam Lindsay; and her eleven grandchildren Eric Marquardt, Makenna Maus, Heather Marquardt, Violet Maus, Dominic Maus, Isabel Lindsay, Daniel Lindsay, Claire Lindsay, Lindsay Maus, Vivian Lindsay, and Samuel Maus.
