#543 verses 1-4

Praver 23rd Psalm in Unison

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He makes me to lie down in green pastures: he leads me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anoints my head with oil; my cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

ARLEY WAYNE GALLUP, 94, died January 10, 2023, at Sanford Medical Center in Bismarck.

Arley Wayne Gallup was born in Bismarck, ND December 19, 1928, the son of Harry and Albia Gallup. He attended schools in Bismarck, graduating from Bismarck High School in 1946. At the roller rink he met his future wife, Charlotte Ann Betts. She was always his first choice for the couple's skate. He later attended Bismarck State College.

Arley enlisted in the Army. While in Korea, as a Sergeant SFC, he served with the 25th Infantry Division, 81st Infantry Regiment, 3rd Battalion, Company I, in 1951 and 1952. For his service, he was awarded the Bronze Star, the Korean Service Medal with 2 Stars, the United Nations Korean Service Medal, and the Combat Infantry Badge.

After completing his military service, he married Charlotte Ann Betts on July 23, 1952 at the First Presbyterian Church in Bismarck. The couple celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary in July, 2022. They had three daughters, Darcy Cline (Robert), Kimberly Hilgers, and Tamara Lelm (Les). During this time, Arley worked at the Mandan Oil Refinery for 36 years, retiring in 1986.

Arley was an avid softball player as a pitcher and first baseman. Arley's other hobbies included: playing bridge, where he attained the rank of Life Master; gardening, and woodworking. His family cherishes many of the gifts that he had made. Arley was a member of the Elks Club, Am Vets Club, VFW, and was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Bismarck where he served on the Board of Deacons.

Arley is survived by his wife, Charlotte Ann; his three daughters and sonsin law, five grandchildren: Amber Cline-Rabah, Christa Cline Bear, Leah Millner Mowan (Ryan), Paul G. Millner (Sarah), David Michael Hilgers (Aly), eight great-grandsons: Aaron Bear, Benjamin Bear, Colston Bear, Donovan Bear, Grayson Rabah, Ezra Mowan, Jameson Mowan, Jackson Millner, and one great-granddaughter, Ellie Millner.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his sisters, Shirley Cotham, Donna Weber, Darlene Brown, and Mavis Patchen.

Preferred memorials include the Dakota Zoo and the First Presbyterian Church.

WHY GOD MADE FATHERS

God knew that children all would need
Someone secure and strong
To shelter and protect them,
And to teach them right from wrong...
Someone they could take pride in,
And look up to as a guide,
Someone that they could count on,
And in whom they could confide...
He knew as children grew,
They'd need the reassurance of
Someone with faith and trust in them
To always give them love...
And that's why God made fathers.

Celebrating the Life of

ARLEY GALLUP

December 19, 1928 ~ January 10, 2023

He was just an aging veteran, And his ranks were growing thin, But his presence did remind us, We may need his likes again.

If we cannot do him honor
While he's here to hear the praise,
Then at least let's give him homage
At the ending of his days.

Perhaps just a simple headline
In the paper that might say:
"Our country is in mourning,
A Veteran died today!"
