Happy Birthday Mrs. Faber!!

The Kindergarteners at APCS celebrated Las Posadas. This is a Mexican Christmas Festival. Kids and grown-ups parade around their community knocking on doors like Mary and Joseph, looking for a room. At each door they ask “Le pido posada?” which is loosely translated, “do you have a room for us?” Then they drink hot chocolate, eat tamales, open presents, hit a piñata, and enjoy time with their families.

Our Kindergarteners dressed up and made a processional through the school halls. They knocked at the first grade room. “Le pido posada?” The first graders had been prompted to say “no room here.” The Kindergarteners went to 2nd grade and then to 3rd and 4th. “Le pido posada?”

Again, “no room here.” Next it was 5th and 6th. No room. 7th and 8th. No room. Then they came to my office. I was so glad to be the last stop. I was so glad that when they asked “Le pido posada?” I got to say “Yes! Come in!”

Ms. Alisha brought some little chocolates. We got to have a party in the principal’s office!!

At APCS we know that every day Jesus asks us “Le pido posada?” “Do you have any room for me?” “Look! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in, and we will share a meal together as friends.” Rev 3:20

This Christmas season let us all make sure we answer, “Yes! Come in!!”
