Sue Bordeaux Allen, 81, of Newport, North Carolina, passed away on Saturday, January 27, 2024, at Carteret Health Care, following a short battle with cancer.

A memorial service to honor Sue's life will be held at 2 p.m., Thursday, February 1st at St. James United Methodist Church, officiated by Rev. Joseph Park. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.

Sue was born on September 6, 1942, in Wilmington, North Carolina, to the late John and Annie Bordeaux. She was a 1960 graduate of Morehead City High School and enjoyed annual reunions over the years with her classmates. After Sue obtained a bachelor's degree, she pursued a career as an Aircraft Electrician at MCAS Cherry Point. Her dedication and expertise in her field were widely appreciated.

Faith played an essential role in Sue's life, as her strength and guidance were found in her love for the Lord. Sue was a devoted member of Saint James United Methodist Church. She spent countless hours in the pages of her well-worn Bible, where she drew comfort and wisdom from its teachings.

Sue found immense joy in supporting her grandchildren's sporting events, whether it be cheering for them at softball games or enthusiastically ringing her beloved bell when they excelled on the wrestling mat. She was their number one fan, providing endless love and encouragement.

Sue was an advocate for the American Cancer Society, and actively engaged in supporting the Relay for Life initiative. A cause that held deep personal significance for her as she was a two-time cancer survivor. Her remarkable strength and determination served as an inspiration to all those around her.

Sue is survived by her husband of 61 years, Thomas Allen of the home; son, Danny Allen and wife Cindy; grandchildren, Chris Allen (Amber) and Kimberly White (Kyle), all of Newport; 4 great-grandchildren, Kolby, Karleigh, Bayley, and Levi; brothers, Johnny Bordeaux (Nancy) and Buddy Bordeaux of Wilmington, NC; sister, Jean Bostic (Wayne) of Kure Beach, NC; special sister, Pam Jenkins (Henry) of Florence; brother-in-law, Aubrey Mason; and many loving nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In addition to her parents, Sue was preceded in death by her sister, Ellen Mason.

THE Lord's PRAYER

*Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory, for ever.
Amen.*
