"Well Done My Good and Faithful Servant"

Dorothy A Lewis was born on September 10, 1935, in Sylvania, Georgia to Thomas Eugene Lewis and Jessie Mae Scott-Lewis, she was the eighth child of eleven.

Aunt Dot, as her family affectionately called her, was educated in the Screven County public school system and received her high school diploma. She was employed at New York Bell Telephone Company (Verizon), as a supervising operator, until her retirement.

Aunt Dot had a soft, gentle demeanor and a meek spirit. Oftentimes she would sacrifice and put the needs of her family and friends above her own needs, without malice or forethought and that's the true Epitome of Love!

She and her sister Ida were so close that one would always ask "Are you guys joined together at the hip?" She would just laugh and keep moving. She Loved and Trusted the Lord with all her Heart and Soul and was obedient up until the very time of her homegoing.

She was an avid reader and especially enjoyed Ian Fleming's novels, Cooking, Sewing and watching her Soap Operas. She was preceded in death by her mother, father and eight siblings.

She is survived by her two remaining siblings, Ida Belle Lewis Monroe of Savannah, GA and Roy Russell Lewis (Dorothy Lewis) of Alexandria, VA; and several nephews, nieces, grand-nephews, grand-nieces, great-grand nephews, great-grand nieces; and a host of cousins and friends.

John 14:2-4 The Road (MSG)

"Don't let this rattle you. You trust God, don't you? Trust Me. There is plenty of room for you in my Father's home. If it weren't so, would I have told you that I'm on my way to get a room ready for you? And if I'm on My way to get your room ready, I'll come and get you so you can live where I live. And you already the road I'm taking"
