We'll See This Through

They say this, too, shall pass,
They say grief eventually fades.
But those sayings are of little comfort
When you're living through such sad days.

They say that time heals all,
And this mush I know is true.
So hang in there, my dearest friend,
And together we'll see this through!

November 1, 2023

Fair winds and following seas, may forever you feel, upon your cheek, the salty breeze. Your spirit lives on in many a heart, your words captured, and never to depart. May your loved ones have the comfort in knowing, to heaven is where you are going. For all that they have to do is look above, and they will be reminded of your love.

Reflections Of His

Wendell Neil Todd July 27, 1957 - November 1, 2023

Wendell Neil Todd was born in Kansas City, MO, Saturday, July 27, 1957 to Alvin and Constance Todd.

He was the third of four sons. He was a lively child and brought excitement to the family. The family, at the time, attended Jamison Memorial Temple CME Church, though it is not certain when Wendell accepted Christ as his personal Savior. Wendell attended schools in the Kansas City area and graduated from Paseo High School in 1975, where he was a standout player in basketball. He later played for UMKC in KCMO.

He was fond of traveling and drove for several national and local trucking companies over the years. He was adept at driving and repairing the "Big Rigs." Brother Todd was blessed with a daughter in 1975. He was married to Bridgette Williams in 1991, and joined the Navy that same year, where he worked on aviation support equipment and was a member of the "Commissioning Crew" for the USS Boxer (LHD 4) in February 1995. Wendell's life was laden with challenges. He was an active and a personable individual. He loved his daughter, and grands, and doted a bit on them all. He was truly fond of the "Lone Star State," and spent much time remembering times spent there. He was especially fond of his memories of Houston county. He loved his naval experiences and commented on how different the military was from civilian life. Mom and dad impacted his life in many ways. He routinely spoke of things daddy had said and how these statements played out in life.

Wendell was an interesting individual, to say the least, and will be missed by many Wendell was preceded in death by his father; Alvin Todd, his mother; Constance Woods Todd, and older brother; Dennis Todd.
