"To My Family and Friends"

I've gone now; I thought the time was right.
I've said goodbye to pain-filled days and lonely nights. I've lived my life, done my best, an example I've tried to be. So now I've taken that step beyond and set my spirit free. I didn't want to go at first, I fought with all my might, but something seemed to draw me to the heavenly light. I'll not be far, I promise that, and hope you'll always know, that my spirit will be close to you where ever you may go. Thank you all for loving me, you know I love you too, that's why it was so hard to end this life with you. So dry your tears, don't be sad, let me hear you say, you all look forward to joining me in Heaven one sweet day.

~ Reflections of His Life ~

Marlon Terrell Goodman was born on April 20, 1971, in Kansas City, Missouri, to Roy E. Goodman Jr. and Alice M. Goodman.

Marlon was educated in the Kansas City, Missouri, public schools & the Center School District of Kansas City, Missouri. He worked in various light-industrial job positions throughout his lifetime.

Marlon met and married Erica L. Cunningham on November 25, 2000, and was blessed with two children. Marlon was a proud father of his son, Mar'Quan Terrell Goodman and his daughter, A'Mari La'Nay Goodman.

He enjoyed grilling, playing cards, dominos, and being a die-hard Chiefs fan. He loved playing pranks on friends and family, admiring vintage cars, and perfecting his green thumb in his spare time.

Marlon departed this life on Tuesday, August 15, 2023. His maternal grandparents, Benny and Delilah Sailor, paternal grandparents, Roy E. Goodman Sr. and Fannie Mae Goodman, and a host of relatives all preceded him in death.

Marlon leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Erica L. Goodman; children, Mar'Quan and A'Mari Goodman; parents Roy E. Goodman Jr. (Ida) and Alice M. Goodman; sister, Whitney Brooks; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, and nephews; cousins and other relatives and friends.
