

Sandra Kay "Sandy" Branch, 68 of Bowling Green went to Heaven on Sunday, June 14, 2015

She was a daughter of the late Fred and Donnie Mae Flippo Freeze. She was an insurance agent and was on several bowling leagues at the Crescent Bowl.

Sandy is survived by her husband, Ronnie Branch; two sons, Jimmy and Eric Moore; a daughter, Ronda Miller (Ed); step-daughter, April Trussell (Robby), her loving sister, Juanita Campbell, five grandchildren, Taylor Fields, Nick Moore, Cody, Autumn and Sammy Branch, and two great grandchildren. Sandy will also be greatly missed by several nieces, nephews and many many friends--including Bill & Sherry Schanuel. Sandy loved life, loved to laugh, and especially spending time with friends and family.

Sandy will be remembered most for her smile, kindness and incredible strength. She needs to be strong no longer, the Lord carries her now.

Funeral service 12:00 noon Thursday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with burial in Fairview Cemetery. Visitation 4:00-8:00 Wednesday at the funeral home.
