

Pall Bearers & Floral Bearers
Friends of the Family

- Acknowledgements -
The family of
DEACON CHARLES R. HOOKER
acknowledges with deep appreciation and grateful hearts all expressions of sympathy extended to our family during our time of bereavement. Your kindness and thoughtfulness have enabled us to bear the loss of our loved one. May the Lord continue to bless each of you and keep you forever in His grace and mercy.

- THE HOOKER FAMILY -

Professional Services Entrusted to:

726 SW Tarboro Street | Wilson, NC 27893
(252) 237-2169 (Office) | (252) 237-0120 (Fax)

REMEMBERING THE Life

December 14, 1941
July 16, 2023

DEACON
Charles
R. HOOKER

Saturday, July 22, 2023
- 11:00AM -
Robert King, Sr. Memorial Chapel
Carrons Funeral Home
726 S. Tarboro St., Wilson, NC
Apostle Ella Brown Langston, Eulogist

- ORDER OF SERVICE -

Pastor Robert Ward, Presider

Processional.....Ministers & Family

Musical Selection.....Greater Church of Love

- Scripture Readings -

Old Testament.....Ms. Tracy Connor

New Testament.....Ms. Tonya Gear

Prayer of Comfort.....Elder Edna Brown

Musical Selection.....The Hooker Sisters

- Reflections (2 minutes please)-

Pastor Robert Ward

Apostle Ella Brown Langston

Solo.....Mother Jeraldine Hooker

Acknowledgements/Church Resolution & Obituary

Ms. Sherry Hooker

Solo.....Elder Edna Brown

Eulogy.....Apostle Ella Brown Langston

Funeral Director's Brief

Solo.....Mr. Kent Taylor

Recessional & Viewing

- OBITUARY -

Deacon Charles R. Hooker

was born the son of Weldon L. Hooker and Rena Davis on December 14, 1941 in Hyde County, North Carolina. God in His infinite wisdom and unfailing love, called Charles home to eternal rest on July 16, 2023.

Charles was reared in Hyde County, North Carolina and received his formative education in the Hyde County Public School System. He was a graduate of the historic Davis High School in Engelhard, North Carolina. After graduating he immediately entered the workforce holding various jobs before being employed by Wilson Memorial Hospital (now Wilson Medical Center). Charles was a dependable and reliable employee. He was never late and was always present to tackle the tasks of a day's work. He kept these same work ethics until his retirement.

Deacon Hooker was an amazing mechanic. He could fix any kind of automobile, scooter, motorcycle, etc. and it would run as good as new. Charles enjoyed making sure family and friends had steady and dependable transportation. He was also an avid fisherman and reeled in the biggest and prettiest catch of the day.

Believing in the word of God and the love of Jesus Christ, Charles willingly submitted his life to the Lord. Charles united with the Greater Church of Love in Lucama, North Carolina under the pastoral leadership of senior pastor, Apostle Ella Brown Langston. He was a faithful and diligent member. He would always encourage the younger individuals to stay in their word and trust God. Charles faithfulness did not go unnoticed. His characteristics as a person, loyalty to the ministry, and reverence to Christ were the reasons he was elevated in the ministry and consecrated to the office of Deacon in the Lord's Church. A true and faithful soldier has gone from labor to reward.

Loving and lasting memories are left to be cherished by his caring and devoted wife, Mother Jeraldine Hooker; one son, Carroton Perkins; one sister, Christine Braswell (Robert) of Snow Hill, North Carolina; one brother, Joseph Hooker (Alice Faye) of Saratoga, North Carolina; one brother-in-law, Daniel Hudson; ten stepchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, including a special nephew, Michael Hooker; other relatives and friends.

THE BROKEN CHAIN

Little did we know that this day,
God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,
In death we'll do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;

For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.

You left us precious memories,
Your love is still our guide,

And though we cannot see you,
You're always by our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.

But, as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.