For Today

What Does God Really Want from Us?

Ellen White reminds us where Jesus should be in our witness to the world. “Of all professing Christians, Seventh-day Adventists should be foremost in uplifting Christ before the world. The proclamation of the third angel’s message calls for the presentation of the Sabbath truth. This truth, with others included in the message, is to be proclaimed; but the great center of attraction, Christ Jesus, must not be left out.” But when you ask the average person on the street what they know about Adventists, they reply, “You worship on a different day.” Or, “You don’t eat pork.” Or, “You don’t wear jewelry.” Or, “You run those wonderful hospitals.” I have never heard anyone say, “Oh, you are the people who love Jesus more than anything else. You are the people who help in the community more than anyone else.”

I believe it is time for a major paradigm shift in how Adventism looks at itself. On the one hand, we hear wonderful reports about the growth of the Adventist church around the world; but is that what we are really here for? Are we, by ourselves, trying to tell the world about Jesus? What does God really want from us?

Postlude

And while the crowds were thickly gathered together, He began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah [a]the prophet. For as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation. The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and indeed a greater than Solomon is here. The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and indeed a greater than Jonah is here.

Luke 11:29-32 (NKJV)
