I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times,
my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now,
He set me free.

REMEMBERING

Jenifer

Jenifer Lewis was born on May 20, 1962 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the late Reverend Lee F. Lewis and Bettye Hall.

Proceeding her in death is her oldest sister, Joyce. She joined her parents and her oldest sister on January 7 peacefully at 2:30 AM. She was surrounded by love and peace. She is with her mom now - just where she wanted to be.

She was educated in the Philadelphia public school systems until high school where she attended Little Flower Catholic High School for Girls. She participated in various clubs. She ran on the track and field team, and served in certain community service corps. She obtained an Associates degree in Accounting from Community College of Pennsylvania.

Jennifer's relationship with God, began at an early age. She was associated with various committees and clubs of the church. When she served on these committees and clubs, she was truly dedicated. She was the leader.

Jenifer Lewis became a member of the 12-N-12 Group in May of 1996, that has been meeting at her church, Mediator Lutheran Church since March of 1978. Jenifer walked into the 12-N-12 Group and heard the message of hope and recovery. Jenifer attended the 12-N-12 Group twice a week and became an active member of the group. Jenifer served her homegroup for many years holding different positions in the group including being the group GSR, carrying her group voice to the Fellowship as a whole. Over the years of Jenifer being a member of the 12-N-12 Group she fellowshiped with many members and traveled to many different places together carrying the message of hope and recovery. Next to her Church Family, the 12-N-12 Group became an important part of her life over the years. The 12-N-12 Group always held a special place in her heart. Jenifer had over 26 years of continuous Sobriety in Recovery when God called her home.

Dedicated to her family, Jennifer was an executive assistant with the county assistance office.

She leaves behind her sister, Sophia, her nephew, Brandon, and her great-nephew, Brandon, Jr., Michael Wisner, and a host of family and friends. She will truly be missed.

Lovingly Submitted,
