Privacy Protection

For the protection and transparency of all individuals joining the program, during zoom calls, unless otherwise stated, all participants must have their video turned on. This is to ensure the people joining the call are the participants and not strangers. While we will have certain exercises that some participants may turn off their video while completing, when joining the call, have the video feature turned on within 60 seconds of joining the zoom call. Any participant joining the calls without video or expressed consent to turn it off will be kicked out of the session.

As stated, exceptions can be made with prior consent. In the event of an internet speed issue leading to not being able to use video, audio can be used to identify program participant.

ReMastering Your Life and its' owner take NO RESPONSIBILITY for conversations and connections made outside of the program.

Missed Zoom Sessions or Appointments

In the event you or your teen cannot attend one of the group sessions, a private video link will be sent to your email address so they can catch up with the group and do any possible homework.

In the event a private session is scheduled and cannot be made by the participant(s), notice must be given 48 hours before the appointment in order to reschedule.

If any appointment is missed without notice, the session is forfeit and no refund or partial refund will be granted.

Make sure you show up on time and ready for sessions.

All participants may enter the zoom waiting room or call up to 5 minutes after the start time. As our program outline is very specific and builds on itself, if a participant is more than 5 minutes late, they will be not allowed to join that session. If you are late and are not permitted into the room, a private video link will be sent to the email address listed in this contract. No refunds (partial or otherwise) will be given for missed sessions.
