MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for soul set free?
Miss me for a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone,
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Acknowledgment

The family would like to take a moment to extend our sincerest appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy, words of comfort and prayers during our time of bereavement.

LOVED BEYOND WORDS. MISSED BEYOND MEASURE.

Viola Jackson was born to Lucille and James Martin Sr. on February 4, 1948 in Philadelphia PA.

She attended the Philadelphia Public School systems and graduated from Edison High School. She obtained a nursing degree, at which she worked at Iris house.

She was family-oriented, very outspoken and can argue with the best. She enjoyed cooking, going to the beach, stimulating her mind with crossword puzzles and anything challenging. She had a beautiful spirit, loved to laugh and will be missed tremendously by her loved ones.

She was survived by her children: Richard (Julia), Tonya (Lloyd), Sheldon and a daughter that preceded her in death, Brenda. Grandchildren: Felicia, Steven, Desmond (Gigi), Bryant (Jennifer), Shakira (Jack), Jade, Craig Jr, Sheldon Jr, Shanaya, Shanell. Great-grandchildren: Ayiana, Ariel, Azaria, Aliyah, Bryant Jr, Ariah, Caleb, Nova, Phoenix and Faelyn. Siblings: Joyce, Nora, James (Donna), and siblings that preceded her in death: Catherine, Olivia, Laura, Gladys and Otis AKA June, also a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
