KEEPING THE EXPERIENCE OF REVIVAL

by Ramon V. Baldovino

This year this bulletin space will be filled with materials drawn from a book written by Elmer Towns, Dean Emeritus of the School of Religion and Theological Seminary at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. It is entitled "I Am Jesus: Let's Change the World."

"So I say let the Holy Spirit guide your lives." (Colossians 5:16, NLT)

What happens when revival comes? You cannot sit back to enjoy His presence. You must do something to keep revival going. When the Holy Spirit manifests His presence, keep living daily and do those things that brought revival. Follow His leading, go where He leads you, and do what He tells you to do. You have the Holy Spirit; now let Him work through you to testify to lost people and other believers who need revival. Do the work of ministry and let the Holy Spirit work through you. If you don't work with the Holy Spirit and allow Him to work through you, you will lose revival. The Spirit comes to work mightily in your church. If you cannot do what He has come to do, you will block out revival.

To keep revival in your life and church, you must continue doing those spiritual disciplines that brought revival in the first place. Don't grieve the Holy Spirit (Eph. 4:30), which is doing sinful things in your life. Also, don't quench the Holy Spirit (I Thess. 5:19). When you snuff out a light, you quench its illumination. So don't do anything that is contrary to the holy nature of the Spirit. Don't snuff out His light.

Personal Prayer: Holy Spirit, come revive me and my church. I will not do anything to grieve you, nor will I put out the light of Your testimony in my life. I will pray as hard to keep revival as I did to originally get it. Amen.

KEY THOUGHT: When the Holy Spirit comes in revival, let Him guide you in your actions and life.
