

In loving memory of Stephen Marcellus Clark, 79, who passed away on Thursday, September 23, in St. George, Utah from Emphysema.

Stephen was born May 26, 1944, to James R and Helen Clark. He was a Provo, Utah native who due to work moved to California for the next 48 years, returning to Utah in 2018.

Stephen served in the Utah National Guard. He served as missionary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in the Northern Indian Mission (Rapid City, South Dakota).

He graduated from Brigham Young High School in 1962, and from Utah Technical College in Electronics in 1970. Work took him to the California Bay Area where for the next 30 years he worked in electronics in the semiconductor fabrication industry. He later earned a Bachelors Degree in Information Systems Management from the University of San Francisco in 2000.

He was an avid shooter and lifetime member of the NRA who enjoyed hunting and the outdoors, including off road and four-wheeling. He was an accomplished amateur photographer. He was involved in Amateur radio in California, and in Utah with Washington County Amateur Radio Emergency Service.

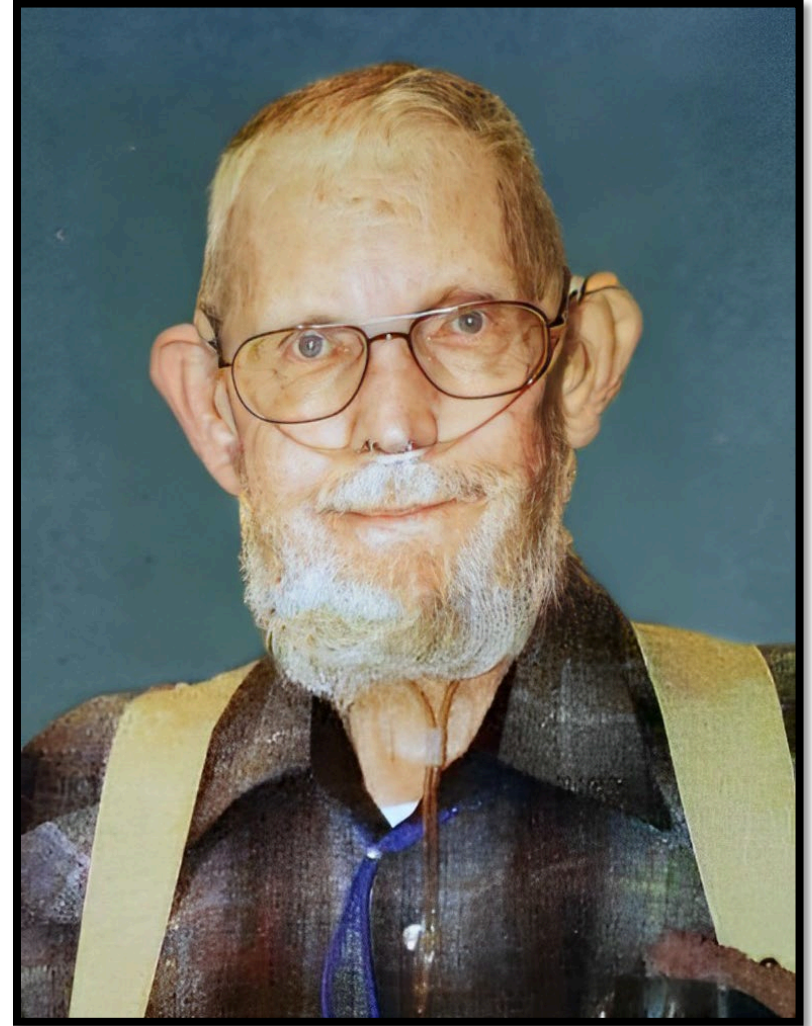

He met Elizabeth Maurine Andreason while they were both attending Snow College in Ephraim, Utah. They were married 2 years later on October 18, 1968. They enjoyed 54 years of marriage and had 2 children, son Donald and daughter Ann Marie. He has 5 grandchildren, Bethany, Caitlyn, Jacob, Angela and Nathaniel.

He is survived by this wife Maurine (Hurricane, Utah), son Donald (Sandra) Florida, daughter Ann Marie (Stephen) Arizona, grandchildren, and brother Bruce (Gayle) West Jordan, Utah.

He is preceded in death by granddaughter, Angela, parents James R and Helen Clark and sister Virginia Bragg.

Funeral Services will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday, September 23, 2023, at Wheeler Mortuary, 211E 200S, Springville, Utah. Visitation for 1 hour prior to services. Interment will be at Eastlawn Memorial Hills at 4800 North 650 East, Provo, Utah.
