

Marcus Tyrone West, Jr. was born on October 25, 1950, in Altus to Marcus Nathaniel West, Sr. and Jerlene Julian West. He attended Lincoln High School in Altus. He enlisted into the United States Air Force in the early 1970s, later retiring from the Army National Guard. He married his beautiful bride, and companion for life, Sharon Margaret Barron on March 3, 1968, in Hot Springs, Arkansas and to this union three sons were born, Marcus III, Kevin and Keith. They made their way back to Altus and Marcus worked in civil service at Altus Air Force Base, but his heart was sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As the Pastor of New Beginnings Full Gospel Ministries in Altus his tender care of parishioners and visiting the sick was seen by all.

Pastor West was preceded in death by his parents, Marcus and Jerlene; and siblings, Raymond West, Kenneth West, Matthew West, Bernice Sneed, Betty West, and Charlene Walker and husband, Leroy. Those left to carry on his memory and legacy are his wife of 56 years, Sharon; sons, Marcus West, III and wife, Monica, Kevin West and wife, Donna, and Keith West; grandchildren, Sharon, Jacinda, and Phyllis; siblings, Lilly Reed and husband, Harry, Wilda Holzemer and husband, Dave, Katy Edwards, and James West; many nieces, nephews and cousins; and an abundance of brothers and sisters in Christ.
