

In Loving Memory

*Its hard to believe, you're no longer here.
Words cannot describe how this makes me feel...
You've passed on to the other side,
though I wish you could still be here with me...
You were a remarkable man-
Dependable, loving and caring-
You were the center of my world.
You were one in a million to me...
You made me laugh, you made me smile-
You were my companion and dear friend.
You were a wonderful husband from beginning to end.
Your love showed me how good life could be,
Your death showed me how cruel, life sometimes is...
But good or bad, life has to go on even though it's not easy to carry on.
Forever will you live on, in my heart and mind.
Forever will you live in my thoughts and never die.
With love always, I remember you,
With fond memories, I think of you...
With hope I believe we'll meet again*

Floyd R. McLeod

October 29, 1930 ~ October 28, 2022

Floyd, son of Donald and Martha McLeod, was born in 1930 at Milton. He spent his early childhood on a farm in East Alma Township where he attended a rural school. The family moved to Milton in 1942.

Floyd attended the Milton School and graduated in 1948. In the fall of 1948, he began teaching at the Tongue River School in the South Olga Township. He enrolled at Mayville Teachers College that summer and continued teaching during the winter and attending college during the summer. During the summer of 1951 he taught summer school in the Perry School District south of Langdon.

In November of 1951 Floyd joined the United States Air Force. While in the Air Force he served as a tactical instructor in Texas and Florida.

After his discharge from the Air Force, he returned to teaching at the Tongue River School and Easby. He continued his education at Valley City State College. Floyd graduated in 1958 and he accepted a teaching position in Fargo at Washington Elementary.

In June of 1960, Floyd married Doreen Thomasson. While they lived in Fargo, three daughters were born: Michelle, Jolyn, and Kristi.

In 1976, the family moved back to Milton, ND. Floyd taught fifth and sixth grades and was the elementary principal. He was an active member of the Eagleson-Meling Post 179. After retirement Floyd and Doreen moved to Cavalier, ND.

He is survived by his loving wife of 62 years, Doreen; daughters: Michelle (Bill) Waslaski, Jolyn (Wayne) Bergstrom, and Kristi Hertz; grandchildren: Matthew (Amanda) Savageau, Erin (Kevin) Koch, Tara (Matthew) Grams, Cassidy King, Nathan (Jessica) Waslaski, Morgan (Trevor) Smith, Mason Hertz, Floyd Althoff, and Miranda Hertz; great-grandchildren: Carson, Cayden, and Hazel Savageau; Logan, Eli, and Ivy Grams; Stella Koch; and Harrison Smith; sister, Jean Peebles; in-laws: Susan Thomasson, Robert (Denise) Thomasson, Irene McLeod King.
