Pastor's Note

A CHURCH REACHING LOST PEOPLE

by Ramon V. Baldovino

This year this bulletin space will be filled with materials drawn from a book written by Elmer Towns, Dean Emeritus of the School of Religion and Theological Seminary at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. It is entitled "I Am Jesus: Let's Change the World."

"How I kept back nothing that was helpful, but proclaimed it to you, and taught you publicly and from house to house, testifying to Jews, and also to Greeks, repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." (Acts 20:20-22, NKJV)

Paul shared the gospel in public gatherings and went house to house to try to win people to salvation. He was doing more than distributing Christian literature or inviting people to attend church. He was sharing the gospel by "testifying to Jews, and also to Greeks, repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ" (v.21). Paul did what some modern-day churches forget—he evangelized. I am Jesus who gave the Great Commission to My followers to preach "into all the world...to every creature" (Mark 16:15). In Matthew 28:19 I also said, "Make disciples of all nations (tribes)." Therefore, evangelize every person, in every part of the world, and disciple new believers of all groups. Is your church obeying Me?

I am Jesus who commanded you to evangelize to all. You could do it several ways. You could do personal evangelism, i.e., one on one. Or you could get involved in you church's evangelistic outreach. Then there are other para-church organizations that are reaching lost people. You could minister with them in other ways to fully support foreign mission with your time, talent and offerings. If today believers were as evangelistic as the first-century church in evangelism, the Great Commission could be finished.

Personal Prayer: Lord, I pray for churches everywhere to work hard to fulfill the Great Commission. Forgive our failures and give us spiritual power to reach them all. Amen.

KEY THOUGHT: When Jesus gave the Great Commission, He expected his followers to be both enthusiastic and energetic in spreading to all people.
