

To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

*When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You musn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many beautiful years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve a while for me if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part.
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away. For life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart, You'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and "WELCOME HOME."*

Amy Marie (Novotny) Morehead was born on October 28, 1932, near Narka, Kansas, to Arnold Frank and Bessie A. (Fiala) Novotny, and she passed away on September 18, 2019, at Brodstone Memorial Hospital in Superior, Nebraska, at the age of 86 years, 10 months and 21 days. Amy grew up on the farm and attended Narka schools, graduating from Narka High School in 1950. On December 1st, 1953, she married George A. Morehead at the Methodist Parsonage in Belleville, Kansas. To this union of 65 years, five children were born, Randy, Debra, Kevin, Sharon, and Scott. Amy called Belleville her home for most of her life, and worked as a cook at the Republic County Hospital. She was a member of the Needlecraft Club (Women of the Rock Island Railroad) and a member of the Belleville Methodist Ladies. Amy is definitely known for her smile, big hugs, and of course, her good cooking (kolaches/pies), she would always please everyone with their favorites. Amy is preceded in death by her parents, sister Norma Morley, and son, Randall "Randy" Morehead. She will be forever remembered by her husband, George; daughter Debra Sue Hiatt and her husband Steve of Superior, Nebraska; son Kevin George Morehead of Manhattan, Kansas; daughter Sharon Marie Morehead of Merriam, Kansas; and son Scott Allen Morehead and his wife Shelley of Andover, Kansas. Amy is also survived by her grandchildren, Megan McMeen and her husband Jerry, Derek Hiatt and his wife Sharmayn, Mack Morehead, Addison Childs and her husband Bryce; great-grandchildren, Natalie, Noelle, Neah and Nadia McMeen, and Adley, Kira, Kaelan and Leax Hiatt; brother Paul Novotny and his wife Carol of Bozeman, Montana; sister Lorene Koukol of Wilber, Nebraska; brother Jim Novotny of Belleville, Kansas; and daughter-in-law Debbie Morehead, El Dorado, Kansas.
