Mother

“Our family won’t be the same without you
Your love was the heart and soul of the family
You taught us how important it is to pray,
And that no matter what the problem may be,
Turn it over to Jesus and let him work it out.”

Obituary

GLADYS LEE BUNCH, affectionately known as “Gladys Bow,” a loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and cousin, was called from earth to glory on Friday, December 2, 2022.

Gladys grew up in Portsmouth, Virginia, and was educated in Portsmouth Public Schools. She attended Norfolk State College, Norfolk, Virginia, but received her Bachelor of Science degree in organizational management and development from Bluefield College in Bluefield, Virginia.

Gladys’ management skills led to several contracting positions over the years. Her cheerful and friendly nature was always appreciated by her family, friends, and co-workers. Gladys was an advocate for many co-workers on her jobs, whether it was defending them or comforting them.

She was a faithful member and servant at Trinity Temple Church, Portsmouth, Virginia, where Bishop Benjamin Adamson, Jr. is the pastor. Gladys was a licensed evangelist, and she served faithfully in various ministries at her church, even when she was dealing with her health problems. We may not be able to hold her in our arms, but we will always hold her in our hearts.

Gladys was preceded in death by her parents, Deacon Jesse Blow and Mother Gladys Blow.

She leaves to rejoice in her homegoing and to celebrate her memory: two daughters, Valencia Bunch of Stafford, Virginia, and Erinne Rodgers of Columbia, South Carolina; one son, Terrence Bunch (Kala) of Newport News, Virginia; three sisters, Shirley Blow-Brockman of Suffolk, Virginia, Jessie Hill of Portsmouth, Virginia, and Linda Hancock of Chesapeake, Virginia; one brother, Michael Blow (Bernice) of Chesapeake, Virginia; nine grandchildren, Aryana Lanier, Brian Bunch, Jazmyn Bunch, Jozeth Bunch, Jaxson Bunch, Jayce Bunch, Amir Rodgers, Josiah Rodgers, and Brandon Rodgers, Jr.; three uncles, Samuel Clifton, Alphonso Clifton, and James Blow; two aunts, Mae Robinson and Doris Wiggins; along with a host of cousins, friends, and her Trinity Temple Church family.
