

The Broken Chain

We knew little that morning,
that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you, the day

God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide;
and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same;
but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

Marsue was born November 25, 1953, to Robert Ross May and Hellen Audren (Nelson) Evans. She passed away January 1, 2023, in Tulsa, OK.

Marsue married her husband, Lonnie Ford, almost 45 years ago on July 9, 1978. They enjoyed swing dancing together. She was a tiny stubborn woman with a huge impact on everyone who entered her life. Marsue dedicated her life to her kids and grandkids. Her love for people was her best quality, so much so that she had dozens if not hundreds of people that called her mom. She never met a stranger, and everyone was family.

She is survived by her husband, Lonnie Ford; children, Arra Ford, Natosha Neveu and husband, Aaron, Nathan Ford, Stasha Blankenship and husband, JJ, Wayne Ford and wife, Rebecca, Montanna Blevins and husband, Mike, Rocky Milligan, and Johnny Milligan; 40 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; siblings, Vicki Shimanek and husband, Curtis, Cora Miller and husband, Mike, Evelyn Miller, and Harold Leniger; 14 nieces and nephews; and many other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Yulanda Milligan; grandson, Devin Derusseau; mother, Hellen Leniger; grandmother, Myrtle Lafavore; brothers, Cecil Leniger and Robert May; niece, Brandy Leniger; daughter-in-law, Toni Wills; father-in-law, Dale Ford; mother-in-law, Doris Ford; grandmother-in-law, Lonnie King; brothers-in-law, Duane Ford and Jerry McFarland; and sister-in-law, Kay Ford.
