

Robert E. Jordan, 85 of Bowling Green died Monday, April 23, 2012. He was preceded in death by his wife of 52 years, Arlene Newhouse Jordan; his parents, Edward M and Susie Mattingly Jordan; his siblings, Sarah Gossum, Joan Kincheloe, Betty Sue Muffett and Billy Jordan. He retired after a long career as manager and part owner of Wholesale Electric. Raised in Oakland he was a proud graduate of North Warren High School. He attended Western Kentucky University and was a devoted Hilltopper fan, an Army veteran, he served in Germany during the Korean War as a member of the 103rd Combat Engineers Battalion, 28th Infantry Division. He was an elder at The Presbyterian Church, volunteered at the Medical Center and the V.A. Clinic at Corpcare, was past president and a Melvin Jones Fellow of the Bowling Green Noon Lions, a member of the American Legion and a Kentucky Colonel. His Masonic brothers were very special to him. He was a member for more than 60 years (PDGM) of the Oakland Masonic Lodge. He also was in Yorkrite Bodies of Bowling Green, Scottish Rite-Valley of Madisonville, Kosair Shrine Temple, KYCH, KTCH, KRAKTP, Red Cross of Constantine, Knight Mason and the Royal Order of Scotland.

He is survived by his son, B.J. Jordan (Debi) of Bowling Green, his daughter, Susan Major (Mark) of Crestwood; his grandchildren, Lauren Elizabeth Major, Scott Aaron Major, Thomas Edward "Ted" Gray and Bailey Joanna Jordan; an aunt, Amelda Grant; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral will be 11:00 a.m. Thursday at The Presbyterian Church with burial in Fairview Cemetery #2. Visitation will be 3:00-8:00 p.m. Wednesday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with Masonic Service at 7:00 p.m.. The family requests that donations be made to the Bowling Green Noon Lions Club % John Carr 2323 Smallhouse Rd., Bowling Green, Ky 42104

SEND CONDOLENCES