Obituary

Mrs. Earline Singleton Grant was born August 15, 1924 on Hilton Head Island, South Carolina to Mr. and Mrs. Nathan and Estella Murray Singleton. She departed this life on Tuesday July 7th, 2020 at home under Hospice Care.

She was educated and graduated from Matilda Boarding School in Beaufort County, South Carolina.

On June 1, 1946, she married the love of her life, James Grant. From this union came five daughters: Estella, Mary, Shirley, Florence and Claretha. Earline was preceded in death by her husband James, and daughters Estella, and Florence.

As a young woman, she along with her brother and cousins, were proprietors of Singleton Beach in South Carolina. She was also self employed selling Stanley Home Products. She retired from the workforce in the mid 80's to continue life as a homemaker.

On January 30th 1970, Earline dedicated her life to Jehovah and was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses. She was a member of the Garden City Congregation for many years until the recent change in 2019 to the West Congregation in Garden City until her death.

She leaves to cherish precious and loving memories, daughters, Mary L. (Charles) Williams, Shirley M. (Robert, Sr.) King, Claretha (Tom, Sr.) Smith; grandchildren, Yolanda (Willie) Jinks, Shandrena Famble, Racquel King, James R. Grant, Ireshia Williams, Tom Smith, Jr, Tosca Smith, Jason Smith, and Robert (Shonta) King, Jr.; a special great-granddaughter, Rashetria King; thirty-eight other great grandchildren, four great-great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and congregational friends.
