Key Concepts for Spiritual Growth

Our relationship with God brings us into a unique relationship with other Christians. It impacts the way we see ourselves and one another as we are brought face-to-face with our common dependence upon God for all our needs and our common call to serve Him.

How to Hear the Voice of God

God is big enough.

He's big enough to speak through doors and dreams and people.

He's close enough to speak through desires and promptings and pain.

He still speaks light into darkness.
He still brings order out of chaos.
He still makes beauty out of ashes.

He is God with us in every sense of the Word. He is a friend that sticks closer than a brother!

Scripture paints the picture of a God who exists outside of time—the One who was, who is, who is to come. It paints the picture of a God who exists outside of space—the One who is here, there, and everywhere.

But there is one place where God finds Himself on the outside looking in, and that place is the door to your heart. If you want to hear His voice, you have to answer the knock.
