

PAUL P. KINCHELOE, JR

Paul P. Kincheloe, Jr. 87 of Brentwood, TN died Jan. 1, 2012 at Skyline Medical Center. He was the son of the late Paul P. Kincheloe, Sr. and Beatrice Bolton Kincheloe and husband of the late Joan Jordan Kincheloe and Phyllis Sills Kincheloe. He was a Real Estate Manager at NLT Corp., Electrical Engineer at WSM, member of Southminister Presbyterian church, Past Master of Cave City 790 F&AM masonic lodge, Patrol Unit of Almenah Shrine Temple, standing Chaplain of American Legion Poast Five, and a Navy veteran serving on the USS Ranger.

Visitation 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. Thursday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home Bowling Green Chapel with graveside service following at Smiths Grove Cemetery, also a memorial service will be held 5:30 -7:30 p.m. With service at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Jan 6th at Southminister Presbyterian Church in Nashville, TN

Inlieu of flowers donations to Kosair Children Hospital, 231 E. Chestnut St., Louisville, KY 40200 or Southminister Presbyterian Church, 643 Harding PL, Nashville, Tn 37211

Survivors include a daughter; Ann Smith and husband Jim; granddaughter, Stephanie Kosmatkia and Lurie Condra and husband Steve; great grandchildren; Brandy Martin and husband Brandon, Kevin Kosmatka, Christopher Paul Engbrock and Cole Condra; Great great grandchildren, Haiden Martin; Step children, Ruthie Russell and husband Richard, George Hosfield and David Hosfield and wife Ann; several step grandchildren and great grandchildren; sister, Jennie Waller; Brother, Bill Kincheloe and wife Wilda; brother in law, Bobby Jordan; cousin, Jimmy Shaw, several nieces and nephews and beloved friend, Karen Luther

Send Condolences