The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Psalm 46:10

*“Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!”*

Martha Ellen Roberts, age 83, walked on the gold streets into Jesus’s arms on Monday, August 26th in Greenbrier, Arkansas. She was born June 27, 1941 in her childhood home in Dyer, Tennessee to the late Cleatus Woods, Sr and Audrey Bessie Bradford Woods. Martha was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Richard Preston Roberts who passed in August of 2012, by her daughter Vicki Lynn Roberts and six brothers and sisters.

Martha spent her life pouring love into her family, traveling with the love of her life, fishing out of Conway Lake, and feeding her family and her church with dishes no one else could duplicate. Martha and Richard were proudly married for 53 years. Martha regularly attended Woodland Heights Baptist Church and enjoyed going to Bible Study with her friends. Martha knew Jesus as her savior and knew one day she would see all of her loved ones that went before her.

She is survived by her son, Timothy Roberts, of Mayflower, by her grandchildren: Charley Hopper (Derrick) of Greenbrier, Samantha Roberts, Justin Roberts, and Chad Roberts; by her great-grandchildren: Alexis, Haidley, and Ryan Hopper, by her brother Cleatus Woods, Jr., and many nieces, nephews and extended family that will miss her.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, 11:00 a.m., August 31st, 2024, at Smith Family Funeral Home-Conway, 1751 Dave Ward Drive, officiated by Pastor Matt Bagby. Visitation will be held one hour prior to service from 10:00-11:00 a.m. The burial will take place in Crestlawn Memorial Park.
