

John William Legge, 73 of Smiths Grove, died June 21, 2015, at his home. The Chicago, Illinois native was the son of the late William and Dorothy May Legge. He was preceded in death by his daughter Dr. Joanna Legge Featherstone.

Dr. Legge is survived by his wife, Rosemary Justice Legge, of Smiths Grove, a son, William Stuart Legge (Viktorija), a daughter, Kate Legge Suttles (Nathan), one granddaughter, Margaret Noel Nicholson; one sister, Susan McCammon of Glasgow.

Dr. Legge attended Illinois College, Miami of Ohio University, Oklahoma University and he received an appointment as Research Fellow at the University of Glasgow, Scotland. During his teaching career he taught mathematics at Blackburn College, Carlinville, Illinois; Pikeville College, Pikeville, KY; and Western Kentucky University.

Dr. Legge was a life-long member of the Fraternal Order of Masons, Lodge #76 Mt Nebo, a devoted Scotsman, and loving husband and father who enjoyed spending time with his dog, Abbey. A life-long learner, Dr. Legge's endless curiosity compelled him to pursue many hobbies, including animals, home improvement projects, and expanding his vocabulary. He attended both St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Glasgow and Smiths Grove United Methodist Church in Smiths Grove. Reverend Suzanne Barrow, St. Andrews and Pastor Any Wade, Smiths Grove United Methodist will conduct the memorial service which will be at 3:00 p.m. Wednesday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Smiths Grove Chapel with visitation from 2-3 p.m. Wednesday.

The family requests in lieu of flowers donations be made to either Smiths Grove Methodist Church youth fund % Johnny Butler, 333 N. Main St., Smiths Grove, KY 42171 or the St. Andrews Episcopal Church building fund % Rev. Suzanne Barrow, P.O. Box 905, Glasgow, KY 42142
