

Remember Me!

Remember me with smiles, not tears
For all the joy through all the years
Recall a "closeness" that was ours
A love as sweet as fragrant flowers

Don't dwell on thoughts that cause you pain
We'll see each other once again
I am at peace...try to believe
It was my time...I had to leave

But "what a view" I have from here
I see your face...I feel you near
I follow you throughout the day
You're not alone, along the way

And when GOD calls you, you will be Right by my side...right there with me
Till then I'll wait by Heaven's door
We'll be united...even more!

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path GOD laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all

If my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes these things, I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine for tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now, with undue grief
Lift up your hearts, and peach to THEE
GOD wanted me, now set me free

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, that anyone could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.....

Celebrating THE LIFE OF

Tavarus TROY SENTIL THOMAS

AUGUST 11, 1981 – JUNE 17, 2021

Tavaray TROY SENTIL THOMAS

Tavarus Troy Sentil Thomas was born on August 11, 1981, in Thomasville, GA. To his parent Brenda Joyce Smith and Chester Wesley Thomas, who preceded him in death. Troy was blessed with a dad in Reginald Dale Canada. Troy was the baby of the family surrounded with love and joy. In elementary school, Brenda moved her family to Denver, CO. where Troy attended Teller Elementary School, Gove Middle School, and East High School. A "no non-sense," type of person, Troy proudly served his country in the military. Troy was the life of the party and had the biggest smile that would light up the room.

His energy was contagious and he could make anyone feel warm and welcomed. He knew how to make anyone smile and keep them laughing no matter what they were going through. Troy had a beautiful charming heart and a special gift in connecting with people. Family was extremely important to him and he was loyal to his core to anyone he considered family. He loved to have meaningful conversations and sometimes even push the envelope. No matter what though, if you were in his presence he made sure to have a conversation with you that would have you contemplating even after it ended.

Listening to many different types of music was a favorite pastime of Troy's. His favorite type of music was gospel and his absolute favorite song was The Color Purple's version of "God is Trying to Tell You Something." Troy enjoyed watching movies and taking pictures. He loved spending time with his family, especially his mother, Brenda and dad, Reginald. The bond he shared with them was strong.
