

In Loving Memory of

Hangin' out with Worthless

Steven John Bachman

1958-2020

Revelation 21:3,4

³And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. ⁴And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Steven J. Bachman, 61, Darby, Montana, formerly of Frazee, Minnesota, died June 26, 2020 at his home.

Steven John Bachman was born August 23, 1958 in Detroit Lakes, MN to John and Catherine (Sharp) Bachman. He was raised and educated in Frazee and is a 1976 graduate of Frazee High School. In 1977, he completed the welding class at the Detroit Lakes Vocational College. During his working life, he worked as a welder in Virginia, MN. When the business closed, he became an electrician and worked for Malstrom Electric in Detroit Lakes until moving to Montana where he worked manufacturing log homes.

Steven's pride and joy was the building of the Seven Sisters Liquor Store near Lake Melissa. He also worked for We-Fest each summer since it started. Steve also enjoyed hunting and fishing with his dad and his brother.

Steve is survived by his mother, Catherine Bachman of Detroit Lakes, 2 sisters: Amy of Perham and Christine of Frazee, brother: Frank of Billings, MT, his "special brother": Brad Malstrom: and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his dad, John, and his grandparents: Fred Bachman and Frank and Bea Sharp.
