Additional Announcements for April 11, 2020

The Oregon Conference Children's Ministries Department would like to ask parents to encourage children to participate in the Children's Challenge. It's all about helping our children to think of others who are up front and close to the Corona virus. See the church website or Facebook page for details.

Gladstone Camp Meeting 2020 is going virtual! While we won't be meeting in person at Gladstone, we're planning an interactive online experience that will encourage and connect us. It is still happening in July, with programming for all ages, including José Rojas as our featured speaker! We hope you'll plan to join us for a new way of doing Camp Meeting. Watch our website, Facebook, or your Gleaner for details!

Faith For Today launches a new virtual Bible study series, "The Bible Lab," as a resource for those sheltering in place. The ICE-O-LATION Sessions are interactive Bible studies with Speaker/Director Roy Ice, where participants have the ability to study together from their own homes. The Bible Lab meets on Sabbath mornings at 10:30 a.m. PDT. For more information visit: www.TheBibleLab.com.

Please join us for a special Easter Communion Service following church worship on Sabbath, April 11. The online event will begin at 12:15 p.m. (Pacific Standard Time) with members from across the North American Division welcome to join.

Regardless of our necessary stay at home mandate, through technology, we will celebrate our faith in Jesus love, sacrifice and resurrection. Because He lives, we remain resolute and unafraid. I pray that you will join us in this communion.

To prepare for this online event, please follow the steps below.

- Read John 13 and Desire of Ages, pages 642 – 661. If possible, please conduct the ordinance of humility in your home.
- Prepare the bread. For a recipe to make unleavened bread, please visit sp.uccsda.org/communion
- Get unfermented grape juice.
- Remember to celebrate—Communion should always be a solemn, never somber, experience. Wrongs have been righted, sins have been forgiven, and faith has been reaffirmed. It is a time for celebration!

The service will be streamed online and available from sp.uccsda.org/communion.
