Obituary

Audrey Faye Revell was born on July 29, 1934 in Selma, North Carolina to the late George and Roxanna Revell. Audrey was the middle child and eldest girl of seven siblings. Audrey made a peaceful transition on June 6, 2024 to her heavenly home, while visiting her granddaughter and her husband, and great grandchildren in Clarksville, Tennessee.

Audrey was baptized and dedicated her life to Jesus Christ at a young age. She was an active member of Lees Chapel A.M.E. of Selma, North Carolina. Audrey was last employed with RHA Castleberry Group Home in Smithfield, North Carolina. She was a Residential Health Specialist for over 25 years before retiring.

Audrey shared a home with her sister Catherine, where the family often congregated. Audrey enjoyed lovingly preparing meals, hosting, visiting with her family along Revell Road, and creating cherished memories with loved ones.

Audrey was preceded in death by her daughter Janice Revell; parents George and Roxanna; brothers Ernest, James and Harvey; and sister Helen.

She leaves to cherish her memory her son André (Brenda) Revell; grandson André (Maya) Revell II; granddaughter Ashley (David) Mason and great grandsons David II, Ezra and Noah Mason; sisters Grace and Catherine; sister-in-law Alice R. Summers; a host of nieces and nephews, and other relatives and friends.
