

Susan "Susie" Jane was born in Dickinson on April 4, 1966, the daughter of Vince and Mary Ann (Bren) Krehlik, Jr. She grew up on a farm north of South Heart with her parents and siblings. She attended Special Ed in Dickinson and graduated from Dickinson High School. Susie moved to ABLE in Dickinson where she attended Day Services and worked for the Thrift Store. In her early years, she was a talker. She loved to laugh and bring joy to everyone around her. Susie was a fun, free spirit. She loved to play with her sisters on the farm, going for a jog, riding her bike and jumping rope. Susie could never be rushed. She took her time doing everything, eating, getting ready, and doing her chores. One of Susie's favorite TV shows was Cagney and Lacy. She would go around the house pretending to be a detective. Some of her favorite sayings growing up were "now what", "I don't think so", and "Did you say something". She was proud to have competed in the Special Olympics. Indoors Susie could be found drawing, writing or playing board games. Fashion peaked her interest and she enjoyed dances and getting all fixed up. She found pleasure in her favorite foods...a Reese's peanut butter cup, a McDonald's hamburger, a coke and ketchup. Susie had lots of affection to share. She loved babies, hugging, holding your hand and going for a walk. Susie was a part of the Able family, which she dearly loved, until the time of her death. Susie is survived by her mother, Mary Ann; four sisters, Marie (Guy) Huus, Donna Jenkins, Darlene (Calvin) Lowe, Stacie (Mark) Pomarleau; one brother, Melvin Krehlik; 21 nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father, Vince; grandparents, Vincent and Mary (Kostelecky) Krehlik, Sr., and Anton and Anna (Binstock) Bren.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path
God laid for me.

I took his hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me.
God wanted me now;
He set me free.
