

Prayer and Praise

March 22 through March 28, 2014

Diane Salo has returned to Orchard Park Assisted Living! She has been recovering well, has performed very well with her physical therapy and occupational therapy, which she will continue at Orchard Park with home health personnel. She thanks all for the prayers and cards and looks forward to coming to church in her wheelchair. Her address is Diane Salo, 3110 S 48th St, Rm 42, Lincoln NE 68506. We are so grateful for the caring church family we are a part of. God Bless you all. Joanne Reinke

March 26, 9:40pm

Alice Rowe, Jan Carner's Mother, passed away on Wednesday, March 26. The family will have a private gathering to remember her with family and a few friends who knew her. Thank you for your prayers for the Carner Family.

Thursday, March 27

Betty Jacobs, Doug Sanders Mother, let us know that Doug has signed himself up for hospice.

Doug continues to face his liver duct cancer with faith and courage. Hospice is helping or supplying equipment and medications so he can be at home. The immediate family will be with him this week-end and Betty says she may stay longer.

Friday, March 28

Betty Jacobs let us know they have left to be with Doug over the weekend.

Please pray for Doug and Michelle Sanders. Pray also for Mother Betty, Step-Dad Rich, Brother Chris and all of the family during this difficult time.

The Prayer Meeting a Precious Season

Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them. Matthew 18:19, 20.

The Lord has promised that where two or three are met together in His name, there will He be in the midst. Those who meet together for prayer will receive an unction from the Holy One. There is great need of secret prayer, but there is also need that several Christians meet together and unite with earnestness their petitions to God.

Seek every opportunity to go where prayer is wont to be made. Those who are really seeking for communion with God will be seen in the prayer meeting, faithful to do their duty, and earnest and anxious to reap all the benefits they can gain. They will improve every opportunity of placing themselves where they can receive the rays of light from heaven.

We meet together to edify one another by an interchange of thoughts and feelings, to gather strength, and light, and courage by becoming acquainted with one another's hopes and aspirations; and by our earnest, heartfelt prayers, offered up in faith, we receive refreshment and vigor from the Source of our strength. These meetings should be most precious seasons....

All have not the same experience in their religious life. But those of diverse exercises come together and with simplicity and humbleness of mind talk out their experience. All who are pursuing the onward Christian course should have, and will have, an experience that is living, that is new and interesting. A living experience is made up of daily trials, conflicts, and temptations, strong efforts and victories, and great peace and joy gained through Jesus. A simple relation of such experiences gives light, strength, and knowledge that will aid others in their advancement in the divine life.

Educate your mind to love the Bible, to love the prayer meeting, to love the hour of meditation, and, above all, the hour when the soul communes with God.
