Celebration of Life in Christ

Cory Dale de Cathelineau

The Answer To An Adopted Child

Not flesh of my flesh
Nor bone of my bone
But still forever ours

And don't forget for a single minute,
You didn't grow under my heart, but in it.

You Just Don't Lose Someone Once

You lose them over and over sometimes in the same day.

When the loss momentarily forgotten creeps up and attacks you from behind, fresh waves of grief as the realization sets home
they are gone again.

You don't just lose someone once,
you lose them every time you open your eyes to a new dawn,
and as you awaken so does your memory, so does the jolting bolt of lightening that rips into your heart.

They are gone again,
Losing someone is a journey not a one-off,
there is no end to the loss,
there is only a learned skill,
on how to stay afloat when it washes over.

Be kind to those who are sailing this stormy sea, they have a journey ahead of them and a daily shock to the system each time they realize they are gone again.
You don't just lose someone once,
you lose them everyday for a lifetime.
