Prayer Meeting, normally held Wednesday evenings, will resume after the 10 days of prayer—nightly at 6:30 p.m.).

Fellowship Potluck Lunch menu next Sabbath is Casseroles, hosted by Mary Schott. Members, remember to bring food items fully prepared.—enough for your family plus guests.

Help Needed. The live streaming of our services has proved to be a great blessing to many. However, we need a few more people who are able to learn and run the system. If you are computer savvy, have previous experience, or are willing to be trained for this, please see Ed Martin.

Support our evangelism/health ministry efforts by attending the Dinner with a Doctor event tomorrow (Jan 22) 4:30 p.m. Dr. Marc Braman will speak on weight management.

January 28 the documentary film “Forks over Knives” will be shown at 5:30 p.m. in the Social Room. Popcorn will be provided. There is no charge, but please bring light supper foods to share.

Vegan Cooking School starts Feb. 7 from 6:00-7:30 p.m. and continues each Tuesday of February. A light supper featuring plant-based foods will be served at each class. We will discuss how to shop for healthy food, how to adapt your old favorite recipes into healthier ones, and demonstrate how to prepare vegan options. Cost: $30/person, $45/couple. Registration is required as space is limited. Call 503-455-2560 to register.

“Journey Interrupted” will be shown here at WC Feb. 4, 2:30 p.m., followed by Q&A. Journey Interrupted is a film demonstrating the power of righteousness by faith and a connection with Jesus through the Holy Spirit in the context of victory over homosexuality or any other sin. Questions, call (360) 574-2540.
