The Pastor's Blog

I encourage you to take a moment and consider why you do the things you do. It is extremely easy to get caught up doing things only because we've grown accustomed to doing them. At times, our main motivation for doing things is purely out of habit. Although some of our habits may seem positive (i.e., coming to church), God desires that we worship Him with all of our hearts (Deuteronomy 6:5) and not merely out of habit.

As we celebrate Mother's Day and enjoy the Sabbath, let us not forget to do things with meaning. We have so many things happening at church that at times it is hard to keep track, but for everything that we do, let us do it with our whole heart!

Please remember to pray for our members who are ill, some of whom are fighting for their lives. I personally believe in prayer. It is not something that we as Christians take lightly, yet it is easy to get caught up in our own lives and forget to pray for one another. Let us not have an attitude like Cain who asks if he is his brother's keeper.

Next week is going to be special because we have the Apple Creek Church coming to take care of the day's program (including AY and a games night). Please come out and fellowship with your church family! Be sure to bring food for yourselves and to share with our guests who are from out of town.

Please also remember to support our Pathfinders in their attempt to make it to Camporee by placing your donations in a tithe envelope and marking "Pathfinders Camporee" beside the amount you wish to donate.

P.S. My mother may very well be with us today. Try to see if you can spot her in the congregation.

God bless you all and Happy Sabbath!

~ Pr. Daniel Innocent ~

We Believe...

We believe that man's only salvation is by faith in Christ's life and sacrifice as the divine means of grace to us. (Acts 4:12; Ephesians 2:8; Romans 8:3, 4)

We turn to the entire Bible as a revelation of Jesus Christ. (Luke 24:27; 2Timothy 3:16)

We remember that it was through Jesus Christ that God created all things and that by Him they are upheld. (John 1:3; Colossians 1:16, 17; Hebrews 1:3)

We trust the Holy Spirit as Christ's personal representative to guide the human mind in Christian duty. (John 14:16, 17; John 16:13; Romans 8:9)

We look to the heavenly sanctuary as the site of Jesus' ministry for us as our high priest. (Hebrews 8:1, 2; Hebrews 4:15, 16; 1Timothy 2:5)

We have hope in the soon personal return of Jesus Christ. (Titus 2:13; 1Thessalonians 4:16, 17; Matthew 24)

We find in the Ten Commandments Christ's code of conduct and expect that the believer will evidence the indwelling Christ by the demonstration of spiritual fruit. (John 14:15; Matthew 5:17-19; Hebrews 8:10; Galatians 5:22, 23; Philippians 4:13)

We believe that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit and that we should glorify Christ in every habit and practice. (1 Corinthians 10:31)

We understand that there is no intrinsic life in man, and that any life, present or eternal, is by virtue of Jesus Christ, the source of life. (Psalms 104:29; John 15:6; John 11:25)

We enjoy the seventh-day Sabbath as a reminder of Christ's creative power and as evidence of His redemptive power, which is found in the spiritual rest from the burden of sin. (Genesis 2:1-3; Mark 2:27, 28; Ezekiel 20:12; Hebrews 4:4-9)

We believe that the testimony of Jesus, the Spirit of Prophecy, will be manifest in God's remnant church. (Revelation 12:17; Revelation 19:10)

We are confident that the final judgement will be in favor of those who trust in Christ. (1Timothy 5:24; Acts 17:31; Daniel 7:21, 22)

We feel constrained to share the witness of Christ's blessings to all men everywhere. (Romans 1:14-17; Matthew 28:19, 20)

And finally, we anticipate that Christ will share eternal life with all those who accept His plan, and that these redeemed persons will inherit a restored planet from which all sin and selfishness will have been removed. Then, in a society of perfect trust and confidence, they will enjoy, to the full, the wonders of God's universe. (Matthew 5:5; John 14:1-13; Revelation 21:1-8)
