

In Loving Memory

Angela Gaye (Housekeeper) Cauley, aged 52, of Provo UT passed on unexpectedly in the comfort of her childhood home on Monday March 18th, 2024. She was born June 9th, 1971, in Provo Utah to Gayle Housekeeper; Angela grew up in Provo and attended a young mother's high school. She married Steve Draper with whom she had 4 children with, Cassie, Colten, Dusten, and Travis. They later divorced and Angela met David Virgil Cauley in 1988, marking the beginning of a lifelong love story. Angela and David spent the next years making memories, raising children, and building a loving home for their family. After many years together they finally tied the knot on April 14th, 2001.

Angie cherished spending time outdoors and treasured every moment with her loved ones. She was most well-known for happily taking charge of entertaining and caring for the children, orchestrating crafts, engaging activities, and adventurous scavenger hunts. Her love for children was boundless, earning her the title of "Nana" to many, regardless of biological relation. Angela's compassionate nature extended well beyond her family, as she readily offered support to anyone in need. Notably, Angie and David opened their hearts and home to their grandson Kaydence, providing him with love and care as if he were their own child.

She is survived by her husband David Cauley, sister Amy Nielson, daughter Cassie (Jake) Draper, son's Travis (Whittney) Draper, Colten (TaLysa) Draper, grandchildren Kinliey, Riker, and Cruz Martinez, Kaydence, Kayden, Addison, Keaton, Kestynn, Jaxen, and KopeLynn Draper.
